Humanities Institute Spotlights of the Week

December 1, 3:30p.m. - 4:30p.m.: Medieval Latin Reading Group

The Medieval Latin reading group will meet on Tuesdays, 3:30-4:30 p.m., during the Autumn 2020 semester, beginning Tuesday, October 6.

Participants in the Medieval Latin reading group are not required to prepare the readings ahead of time, and nobody should feel obligated to participate aloud, if you're more comfortable listening. We are happy to accommodate participants with all levels of Latin expertise, including those who have never tried Latin or who have forgotten everything they once knew.

If you would like to receive the Zoom meeting link and be added to the mailing list for future links and readings, please contact CMRS Associate Director Leslie Lockett at lockett.20@osu.edu.

December 2, 11:30a.m. - 12:30p.m.: Archiving Bilingual Collections: ONLO Archival Internship Presentation

Join the Oral Narratives of Latin@s (ONLO) in Ohio Archival Internship team for a presentation about their service-learning work this fall semester! Students in Professor Elena Foulis's Spanish in Ohio course accessioned photographs, videos, and audio recordings from the ONLO Collection housed in the Folklore Archives, creating a bilingual finding aid that makes the collection more accessible to researchers and community partners.

Register in advance for this meeting:

Center for the Study of Religion Awards 2020 - 2021: Robert L. and Phyllis J. Iles Award for Graduate Study of Myth

The Center for the Study of Religion oversees an annual competition to award up to $4000 to an Ohio State graduate student in the Arts and Humanities who is working on myth, broadly conceived. More specifically, the Robert L. and Phyllis J. Iles Award for Graduate Study of Myth, which is administrated by the CSR, has been established to make an annual award of up to $2000 each spring to a graduate student in the Division of the Arts and Humanities in support of that student's research on myth. The award shall be supplemented by $1000 from the Division of the Arts and Humanities and by up to $1000 from the student's home department, for a possible total of up to $4000.

The CSR Iles Award deadline for 2020/2021 will be Monday, February 15. Keep an eye out for additional info here: <https://religion.osu.edu/awards>

Center for the Medieval and Renaissance Studies Awards 2020 - 2021

The deadline for nominations for the 2020-2021 Barbara A. Hanawalt Award for Outstanding Graduate Essay and the Stanley J. Kahrl Award for Outstanding Undergraduate Essay will be 5:00 p.m. Friday, April 2, 2021. Any affiliate may nominate any essay on a medieval or Renaissance topic written for a course offered Spring 2020, Summer 2020, or Autumn 2020. (Papers written during Spring 2021 will also be accepted if available before the deadline.) Papers written for individual-study credit are eligible for consideration; however, honors theses, masters' theses, and chapters of dissertations are not. For additional information or questions about the nomination process, please contact cmrs@osu.edu or check <https://cmrs.osu.edu/awards-grants/essay-awards>.

Award winners receive a $150 prize.

Please also find the application form attached to this email.
